To Whom It May Concern:

Mary Jane has asked that I provide a reference to her work experience at People's Bank, and I am pleased to do so.

Over the 10 years that MJ worked for the bank, I worked directly with her where she reported to me, as well as an observer of her work where she worked elsewhere within the bank. In all cases, wherever she was employed, she had the reputation of being a committed employee that served the needs of the bank extremely well.

In all her experiences with the bank, she was known for her "acceptance of the challenge," rising to the occasion(s) to perform her job(s) with enthusiasm, commitment, and positive results. In her career with the bank, she proved herself to be an excellent manager of people, a great team builder, a very good trainer and mentor, and never lacking for energy or enthusiasm. She was an individual that everyone wanted to have as part of their team, always proving to be an asset.

I highly recommend MJ to any new employer who is looking for a self-driven, hard-working individual who likes the challenge of a making a difference.

Sincerely,

Parry E. Spahr
